Dear Sir:-

At the suggestion of Mr. Harrold E. Gillingham, one of the members of your Society, we are sending you two badges which were issued by the State of New Jersey to the members of the National Guard who participated in the Mexican Border campaign, and we will be very glad to have you accept same with our compliments.

Yours very truly,

GAD/McP

Gentlemen:

In the absence of Mr. Wood who is away on vacation, I beg to acknowledge with very cordial thanks the receipt of the two badges which were issued by the State of New Jersey to the members of the National Guard, which you have so kindly presented to our Cabinets. We are very glad indeed to have them, and appreciate deeply your thought for our Collection.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
